

Position Title

Business Analyst

Job Purpose

The Business Analyst acts as a conduit between the business community and IT. The main task of business analyst is to identify customer business problems/requirement, strong analytical skill and find the most effective solution.

Key Responsibilities

- Examine and analyse user requirements, so as to prepare detailed functional specifications and related documents
- Translate business requirements into clear and actionable specifications for developers.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Identify and mitigate risks or issues throughout the project lifecycle.
- Perform application testing including functional and interfaces, etc. from test strategy, test planning, design and execution
- Support user acceptance testing such as problem resolution, tracking, escalation and closure.
- Execute implementation activities and support post implementation.
- Support daily BAU activity
- Prepare the business scenario and test scripting
- Reviews business scenarios and test scripting in ensuring they are in line with the business requirements.
- Support clarification from the testing team on the test plans and during test execution
- Plan and execute functional and System Integration Test.
- Support User Acceptance Testing
- Required to work closely with the business units and the technical development teams on all system implementation projects as well as maintenance ones
- Provide User Training and support customers to ensure sign off at each milestone as per project plan.

- Willingness and ability to learn relevant skills and tools on the job
- Basic knowledge in software development and API integration.

Job Requirements

- Degree in Computer Science Engineering or a related discipline
- 1 to 2 years of IT business analyst experiences
- Data Analytics experiences
- Good communication and negotiation skill
- Ability to multitask and work on tight schedules.
- Excellent communication skills (verbal and written) in both Myanmar and English language