

Position Title

Contact Center Engineer

Job Purpose

We are looking for an experienced Contact Center Engineer to manage the enterprise level of contact center solution in house development projects as well as insourcing/outsourcing projects.

Key Responsibilities

- Problem-solving – the ability to handle complex enquiries and also the everyday challenges involved.
- Provide technical support for all contact center systems and tools
- Accept customers' calls and respond to inquiries in a professional manner.
- Provide support to Team Members with application, service issues.
- Present professional, efficient and friendly customer service to all customers/agents.
- Solution administration, troubleshooting, upgrading and repairing equipment as required.
- Manage daily work schedule to ensure sufficient call center coverage.
- Assist in the development of technical material and training documents.
- Train customers and colleagues on equipment operation and maintenance as required.
- Onsite technical support a must to all Call Centre locations
- Support 24/7/365 data center environment by providing on-call support rotation
- Strong knowledge of various contact center products and components including but not limited to, SIP Server, Work space, knowledge of reading application logs, inbound routing, outbound campaigns, design call flows, Skills-based routing, integration, desktop toolbar integration and call recording & analytics
- Knowledge of Linux base environment
- MS Windows Operating Systems experience
- The ability to work and team effectively with clients, management, and staff members in a multi-tiered, fast-paced environment

Job Requirements

- Degree in computer science or related fields
- IT certification is a plus
- Minimum working experience of 1 or 2 years in IT
- Working knowledge in Active Directory, WINS, DNS, TCP/IP network