

Position Title

IT Operations and Support Technician

Job Purpose

Responsible to lead the team in day-to-day operation support. Responsible to analyze the issue and find out the way to fix the minor issue in a timely manner and raise the major issue to senior. Responsible for testing UAT / SIT testing for new requirements/projects which are relating to Core Banking and support services. Responsible for supporting branch operation, end of day closing and EOC support. Lead and conduct the training session to the new team members and Junior staffs. Responsible to handle with end user support needs. Responsible for supporting the new products implementation together with seniors.

Key Responsibilities

- Provides technical support and guidance to branch operation and VC/ FC support.
- To evaluate the day-to-day issue and to report to senior for process improvement.
- Identify the system related issue and provide the best solution to the operation
- Performs VC/Function Support for their new product, change request testing and perform appropriate parameter changes in the Core Banking System.
- Responsible for day-to-day Core Banking system user administration.
- Works closely with the IT Service Desk and other backend support to ensure a timely, robust and comprehensive service transition process.
- Responsible for execution Daily/Monthly/Quarterly/Yearly EOC.
- Responsible for supporting the day-to-day operation smoothly.

- Responsible for participating in the SIT and UAT testing for the new requirements, process change and new projects according to the VC/FC requirements.

Job Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in information technology, Computer Science, or a related field.
- Candidates with up to 1 year of relevant working experience are welcome.
- Basic understanding of IT concepts, systems, or technical support is preferred.
- Good communication, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.